

ERA/CUBE Partners Meeting

Friday, May 11, 2007

Beckman Institute Auditorium

9:00 am – 12:45 pm

Southern California Earthquake Scenario: Threat to Lifelines M7.9 earthquake on the San Andreas Fault

- 8:15 am      Check in, Coffee, Pastries
- 9:00 am      Welcome and Opening Remarks
Margaret Vinci, Manager, Office of Earthquake Programs
- 9:05 am      Southern California Multi-Hazard Initiative and how it will benefit lifelines
Lucy Jones, USGS, Chief Scientist, MultiHazard Initiative
- 9:20 am      Southern California Earthquake Scenario and Overview of the 2008 “Shakeout” Exercise
Ken Hudnut, USGS, Pasadena
- 9:35 am      Seismic Vulnerability of Lifelines: Then and Now
Mike Mahoney, Senior Geophysicist, DHS/FEMA Mitigation Division
- 10:00 am     How Private Sector Utilities use Proprietary Information
The Public and Private Partnership and what the California Utilities Emergency Association is Working to Accomplish
Don Boland, CUEA, Executive Director
- 10:25 am     Break
- 10:40 am     Imported Water Supply Infrastructure – Mitigation Strategy
Shane Chapman, Assistant Manager of Water Systems Operations, MWD
- 11:05 am     Critical Facilities and Earthquakes: Managing Risk of Operational Failures
Keith Porter, Caltech, Engineering
- 11:30 am     Open Discussion: Facilitator – Lucy Jones, USGS, Chief Scientist, MultiHazard Initiative

A facilitated discussion between representatives of lifelines, emergency response and the scientific community to share information and concerns to better understand the potential consequences of a rupture on the southernmost portion of the San Andreas fault
- 12:45 pm     Meeting Adjourned

Next ERA meeting October 12, 2007